ATLANTA BOAT SHOW TERMS, RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rules and Regulations related to the allocation of space and show display guidelines are all those adopted by the National Marine Manufacturers Association (NMMA) Shows Committee and are a binding part of the Exhibitor contract. These rules are printed annually in the booklet "NMMA Allocation Procedures and Display Guidelines". This booklet and any later additions, corrections or clarifications made by NMMA are a binding part of the Exhibitor contract. These guidelines may be found on our website, or contact NMMA for a current hard copy.

1 ADMISSIBLE EXHIBITS

- Exhibitor agrees to display only new, unused current-model-year boats and marine related products. Exhibitor will not display any product or signage without the endorsement or approval of the manufacturer. Exhibitor represents that it has full authority and all approvals necessary to display and sell its products at
- b) NMMA reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any company, product, signage, or mat erial for inclusion in the show. No exhibitor shall exhibit, or permit to be exhibited in the space allocated to them, any product, merchandise, signage or display material other than that specified in this application.
- c) Exhibitor agrees that NMMA may remove any exhibits that it determines are of a disruptive, objectionable
- d) Exhibitor represents and warrants that all displayed products comply with all applicable U.S. laws. regulations and consent decree or other mandatory requirements, including any applicable safety standards that may be issued by the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), and the emission regulations issued by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

  2. PAYMENT FOR SPACE AND OTHER NMMA PRODUCTS, SERVICES & MEMBERSHIP DUES

- Member rate applies only to space occupied by the member's own products
- b) Exhibitors must return their exhibit space contract and deposit by the initial deadline in order to retain b) Exhibitors must return use exhibit space contract and deposit by the initial deadline in order to retain their right of first refusal for their previous year's exhibit space. Right of first refusal does not apply to new shows, new venues, and show floor reallocations that may occur from time to time.

  c) NMMA members must be in Good Standing at July 1st preceding the fall shows and December 1st preceding the winter shows, to receive the member discount. Good Standing requires 100% of member
- dues for the current membership year to have been paid, all space deposits for the show to have been made, and all other balances for products, services, certification, Grow Boating assessments and other monies due to NMMA, be not more than 60 days past due. "First time members" joining NMMA, must be in Good Standing by 30 days before the show is scheduled to open to receive the member rate.
- d) Exhibitors who fail to make space payments in accordance with the terms on the reverse side will not be considered for space increases, location changes, or upgrades of any kind and are subject to space reassignment, cutback, or cancellation without credit or refund.
- e) NMMA will process all checks with notation "payment in full" or similar language. NMMA reserves the right to pursue the remaining balance in the event a payment amount is smaller than an open balance of an order that check is paying for.
  3. CANCELLATIONS, CUTBACKS, and SPACE CHANGES

- a) Should the Exhibitor wish to cancel this contract, the Exhibitor must contact NMMA and notice of the cutback or cancellation must be confirmed by NMMA. A contract cancellation penalty repres portion of the total contract price will be assessed according to the following formula:
- 25% contract penalty 1 day past the first payment deadline date (as noted on the front of this contract) 75% contract penalty 1 day past the second payment deadline date (as noted on the front of this contract) 100% contract penalty 1 day past the third payment deadline (as noted on the front of this contract)
- If Exhibitor deposits received to date are in excess of the contract penalty, then Exhibito r will be entitled to a credit for this difference. This credit may be applied to any outstanding invoice for a past NMMA Show or service or used as a deposit for show space. It may not be used for a different show in a different market, and must be used within 12 months of written notice of cancellation. Credits will not be paid in cash. If Exhibitor deposits received to date are less than the contract penalty, Exhibitor must remit a check for this
- Exhibitor deposits received to date are less than the contract penalty, Exhibitor must remit a check for this shortfall to NMMA once the cancellation or cutback has been confirmed.

  b) For all Exhibitors requesting a space reduction, NMMA reserves the right to relocate the exhibit or reconfigure it as determined by NMMA. In the event that show space must be reallocated after contracts have been accepted and signed, NMMA has the right to relocate the Exhibitor's space.
